3	PUBLIC HEALTH DISCUSSION ITEM WITH HCC DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

	The Hertfordshire County Council (HCC) Director of Public Health presented the Healthy Stevenage Strategy 2018-2022 Progress Dashboard for 2018/19, NHS Long Term Plan Overview Report (released in January 2019) and NHS Long Term Plan (Opportunities and Challenges) Summary to the Committee. Members were informed that the NHS plan attempts to be a system wide prevention plan and the report acknowledges that the NHS cannot deliver this on its own. The issues of long-term funding for Public Health and Social Care still remain unresolved. It was pointed out that the NHS had a mixed record on prevention. The NHS was struggling to cope with demand for services. Members sought clarification on the Sustainability & Transformation Partnerships (STPs) and support for mental health. The SBC Health and Sport Strategy Manager provided an update on the Healthy Stevenage Strategy and the success of programmes delivered to date. The Committee raised questions regarding costs related to cycling courses at the Cycle Hub and the success of the community kitchen cooking courses. The Chair gave a personal account of her diagnosis with diabetes. The Chair made a plea for funding and for partners to raise awareness of diabetes support initiatives. The Committee also received updates on mental health support and funding challenges in Stevenage from MIND and the success of the Healthy Hub from SLL. It was RESOLVED: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
