 - The Council
 - The Executive
 - Individual members of the Executive
 - Committees and Sub-Committees of the Council or the Executive
 - Joint Committees

- 1.2 An outline of the decision making structure and the management structure of the Council and the Service Areas within which various functions are generally dealt with is included in Part 2 and Part 8 of this Constitution.

- 1.4 The Local Authorities (Functions and Responsibilities) (England) Regulations 2000 give effect to section 13 of the Local Government Act 2000 by specifying which functions are not to be the responsibility of the Executive; which functions may (but need not) be the responsibility of the Executive ('Local Choice Functions'); and which functions are to some extent the responsibility of the Executive. All other functions not so specified are to be the responsibility of the Executive. The Regulations have been subsequently amended and those amendments are reflected in this Constitution. In addition, certain 'Council' functions must be carried out by the Council itself, that is, the Council may not delegate these to a Committee or officer. These are shown in Table 1.

which form the Authority's Policy Framework and specifies what role the Executive will play in relation to those plans, policies and strategies. Essentially, the Executive will develop and consult on the plans, policies and strategies listed and will then refer them to the Council for consideration and approval.
