

Shephall Relief-In-Need Charity

Rodney Brittain: 13, Watercress Close, Stevenage, SG29TN

Have been a trustee of this charity in the past for approximately 10 years acting as Secretary and Treasurer under the Chairmanship of both Stan Munden and Ian Johnson reporting to the Charities Commission.

Member trustee of the Diocesan Board of Finance St Albans for over ten years.

Have been a member trustee of St Mary's Shephall Parochial Church Council since 1989 holding positions of Gift Aid officer and Church Warden and Finance Chairman.

Neighbourhood Watch representative for Watercress Close for over 20 years.

Lived in Stevenage since 1964, worked at Bae Systems and Verulam School St Albans.

David Hughes: 24 Bridge Road, Stevenage, SG1 3HQ, since 1991.

Chartered Quantity Surveyor (retired), worked as commercial manager for John Laing Construction & Laing O'Rourke.

Previously trustee member of Shephall St Mary Parochial Church Council (PCC) for 18 years. Treasurer to PCC for 10 years. Currently Chair of Fabric Committee to PCC with responsibility for the structure & fabric of the church.

Recently attended Trustee Trainee Workshop organized by the Diocese of St Albans and led by Amanda Francis, partner of Buzzacott Chartered Accountants. The workshop covered good governance, duties & obligations, compliance with regulations, duty of prudence, reasonable care & skill, accountability and responsibilities.

Sarah Kingsland: 21 Glenwood Close, Stevenage, SG2 9QT since 1997.

I have worked at Bio Products Laboratory as a Research Scientist since 1987. Currently Head of BioAnalytics with budget and administrative accountability. Trustee member of St Mary Parochial Church Council since at least 2012, acting as Electoral Roll Officer, Health and Safety Officer and Deputy Churchwarden; Junior Church leader at St Mary Shephall since 2008.