At this juncture, the Mayor spoke of the recent sad passing of former Mayor, Councillor Mrs Joan Lloyd, Freeman of the Borough who had dedicated an extraordinary 48 years of service to Stevenage and its residents in particular in the Bandle Hill and Poplars Ward. The Mayor paid tribute to Mrs Lloyd's sharp intellect, extensive knowledge, and unwavering determination to act in the best interests of the people of Stevenage.

The Leader of the Council also spoke, recognising Mrs Lloyd's remarkable service to both the Council and the town's residents, and the respect in which she was held across the political spectrum. He further acknowledged her significant contributions in a number of roles, most recently as Cabinet Portfolio Holder for Resources.

The Council then stood for a minute's silence in memory of Councillor Mrs Joan Lloyd.

The Mayor then expressed her thanks, noting that this would be the final Council meeting she would chair.
